

audible ORIGINAL DEAR POETRY

Dear Poetry is an advice column that turns to poems for guidance. In each episode, a caller shares a dilemma (big and small), but instead of advice, they receive poems that can offer insight, a new perspective, or just a good laugh.

The first season features writers and poets Cheryl Strayed, Chen Chen, Camille Dungy, Pádraig Ó Tuama, and more.

For Audible to consider funding a second season, we need support in the form of reviews.

Please help us bring more poetry to the world by leaving a review!
